2012 Readers' Choice Awards

★ Best Atmosphere ★

When it comes to wining and dining that special someone, it's hard to beat Mr & Mrs Bund. With views of Pudong's towering skyline, trendy décor and staff uniforms that match, it's become a top choice for first dates, engagement dinners and everything in between.

Editor's Pick: el Willy

Honorable Mention:

Mr & Mrs Bund

★ Best French ★

This French staple was one of the big winners in 2011, and with three awards in hand this year, they've done a great job of defending their titles. Celebrity chef Paul Pairet's popular restaurant continues to impress diners with surprisingly fun avant garde fare and service to match. Tables here are consistently packed, so we recommend booking at least a week in advance. But Mr & Mrs Bund will need to stay sharp next year to three-peat as Cuivre, another big winner this year, lost this category by only four votes.

Editor's Pick: Franck

Honorable Mention: Cuivre

★ Best Business Lunch ★

The Bund is jam-packed with business lunch options, but Mr & Mrs Bund took this prize with nearly three times as many votes as the runners up. It's easy to see why: for ¥200, you'll get to sample some of Shanghai's best fare at a steep discount.
