Going green post-Expo

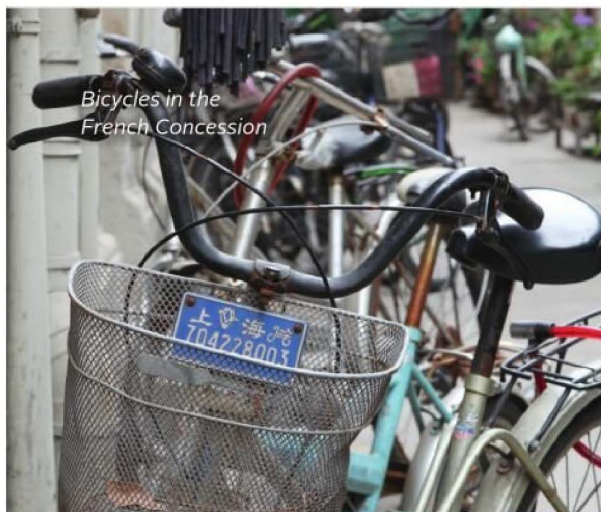

TEXT AND PHOTOS BY ROGER NORUM

GREENRED

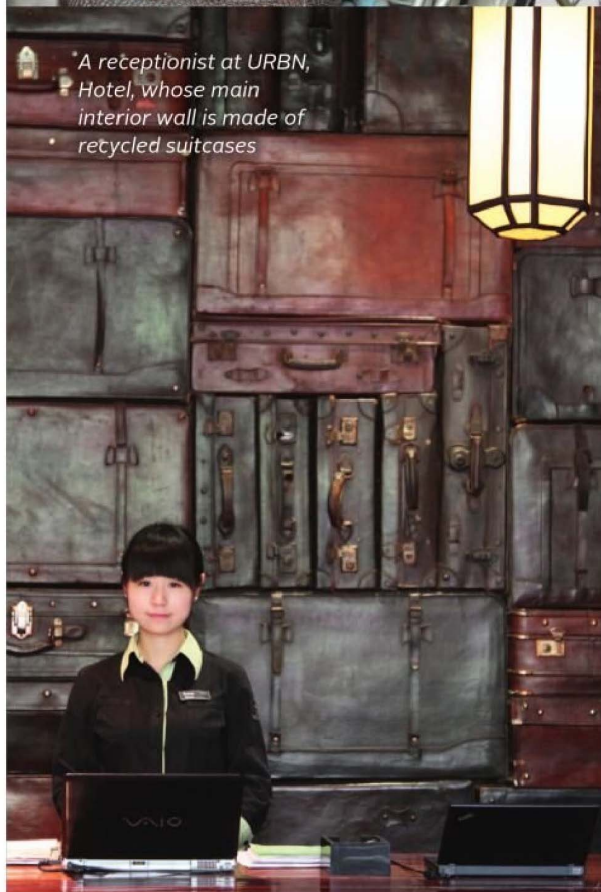

CHINA

ONE YEAR AFTER WORLD EXPO 2010, CHINA IS STILL WRESTLING WITH HOW TO REINVENT ITSELF AS A SUSTAINABLE PLACE TO LIVE, WORK AND PLAY. CAN CHINA'S MEGACITY GO GREEN?

STAYING CHIC

Park Hyatt Shanghai (from €599)
This tranquil landmark hotel towers high above the city, with gorgeous, spacious rooms that are studies in refined opulence.

WWW.HYATT.COM

URBN (from €152)
Possibly China's most innovative hotel, with 26 contemporary, eco-friendly rooms and an outstanding David Laris restaurant.

EATING WELL

Mr & Mrs Bund
Run by heralded French Paul Pairet, this outstanding dining experience boasts a titanic French-ish menu with 250 very innovative dishes – lobster steamed in a glass jar, say – and an astounding wine list.

WWW.MMBUND.COM

MINT
Winning both Restaurant and Club of the Year in 2010, this snazzy, chic spot serves a classic fusion menu (the Wagyu beef tenderloin is a must). Don't miss the all-out dance party afterwards.
